“A MONDAY EVENING SERENADE ON FEDERAL HILL”

OCEAN STATE LEARNING presents its fourth season of Free
Outdoor Concerts on historic Federal Hill during July/August, 2011

July 1, 2011: Providence, RI – For the fourth successive year Ocean State Learning will present a series of Free Outdoor Summer Concerts on Federal Hill in one of Providence’s historic neighborhood parks. Presented through support given by the Neighborhood Performing Arts Initiative, the Providence Department of Art, Culture and Tourism, the City of Providence and Mayor Angel Taveras, Ocean State Learning will perform in St. John’s Park, on Atwells Avenue on Federal Hill in four weekly Monday evening concerts beginning on Monday, July 11th, July 18th, July 25th, and August 1st. Each Monday evening concert will entertain you with a trip down memory lane be it music from your childhood, music from your school years, from the jazz greats, from the Great American songbook, or from that special group that you watched on television during the Ed Sullivan Show. Each week you will be entertained by the best of Rhode Island’s musicians, to include: Orchestra Romanza with Dominic DiPasquale, classical guitarist Ron Murray, songstress and blues great Ms. Kim Trusty and much, much more. So clean off your summer beach chairs, bring them up to the park and prepare to relax while you listen to music from the heart.

“A Monday Evening Serenade on Federal Hill” is hosted by Ocean State Learning, a 501c3 not-for-profit entity dedicated to providing the essentials necessary for student and individual growth through leadership and academics by using the fine arts and performing arts as primary pathways to learning.
